

Oliver Wiedemann, M.D., Ph.D.

Medical Safety Physician, QPPV

Oliver Wiedemann is a medical doctor and has over 25 years of experience in pharmaceutical medicine, including work in pharmacovigilance, where he was / is also acting as QPPV. He holds various positions in large and small pharmaceutical companies, providing medical expertise for OTC, RX and Orphan Drug products in numerous indications. Dr. Wiedemann was responsible for the realisation of national and international phase II and III clinical studies as well as post marketing studies.

Dr. Wiedemann gained his degrees from the Medical Faculty of the Ludwig-Maximilians-University in Munich.

The current and previous positions include:

Medical Safety Physician

FGK Clinical Research GmbH, Munich, Germany

(01/2015 – today)

Pharmacovigilance Physician

FGK Pharmacovigilance GmbH, Munich, Germany

(01/2015 – today)

Medical Monitor, QPPV and Stufenplanbeauftragter

FGK Clinical Research GmbH/FGK Pharmacovigilance GmbH, Munich, Germany

(01/2015 – today)

Independent Consultant for the Pharmaceutical Industry

(06/2013 – today)

Managing Director
EpiCept GmbH, Munich, Germany
(07/1999 – 05/2013)

Medical Director
EpiCept GmbH, Munich, Germany
(10/1998 – 06/1999)

Head of a Medical Department
Sanofi Winthrop, Munich, Germany
(01/1992 – 09/1998)

Medical Manager
Sanofi Winthrop, Munich, Germany
(09/1989 – 12/1991)

Assistant medical doctor
Olympiapark-Klinik, Munich, Germany
(08/1988 – 07/1989)